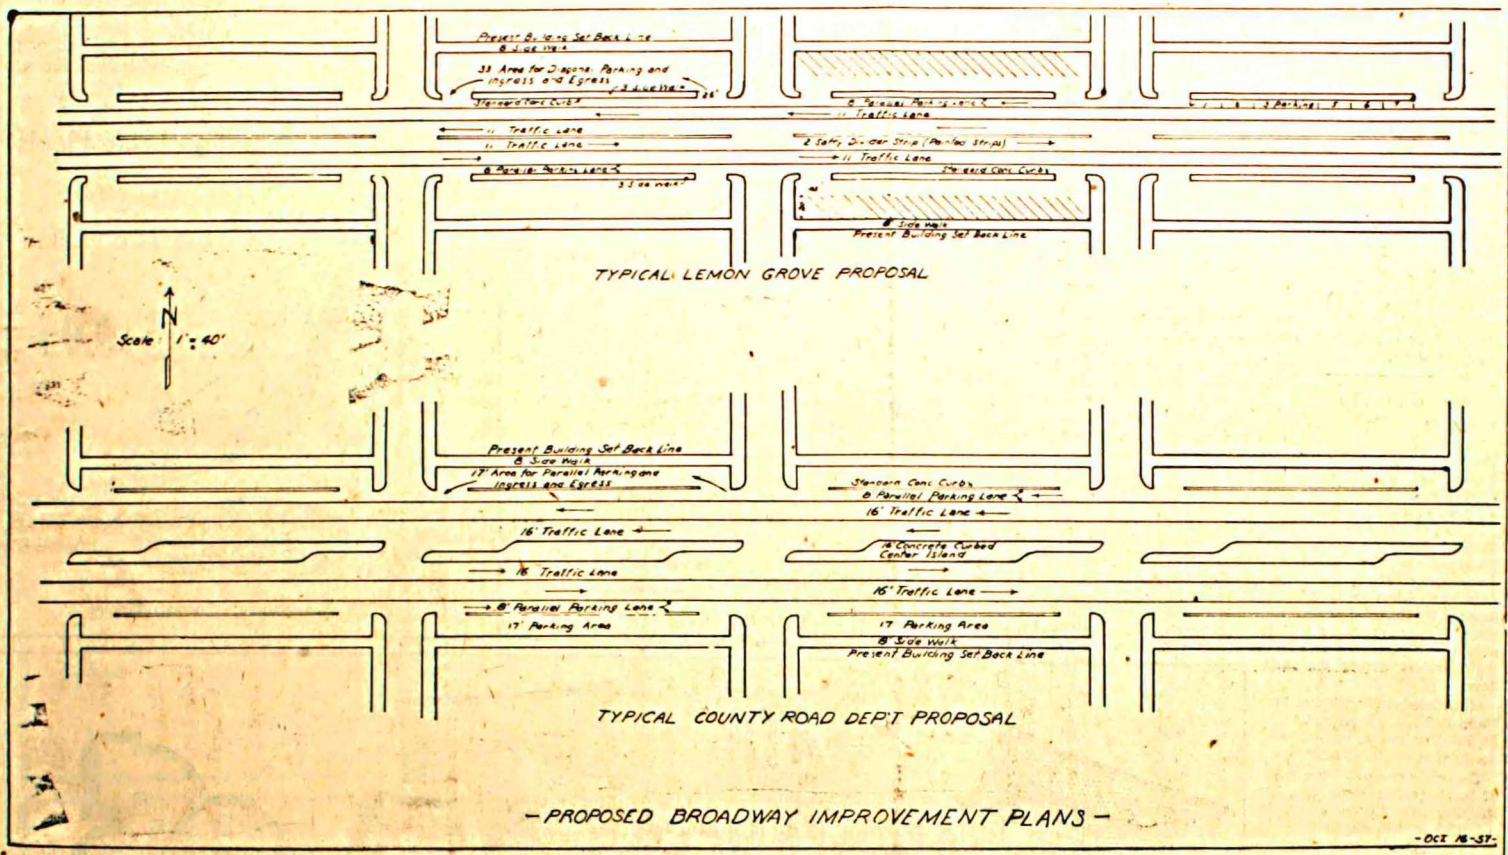
BROADWAY PLANS REVEALED



—PROPOSED BROADWAY IMPROVEMENT PLANS—

-OCT 16-57-

Two plans for improving Broadway the length of the business district will be considered by the County Road Department and a recommendation as to which plan is to be used will be made in time for the 1958-59 county budget, it was revealed by Joe Mack, County Road Commissioner.

One plan is similar to that installed on University Avenue west of La Mesa. It is a 100-foot wide improvement which includes an 18 foot left turn island down the center.

Between the 150 foot (75 feet from the centerline) Broadway set-back lines would be the island which would separate 12 foot traffic lanes, two on each side. There would also be an 8-foot wide parallel parking area and an 18 inch wide curb. Behind the curb would be room for a 17-foot parking area and an 8 foot sidewalk.

Traffic would be regulated in and out by the curb.

This is the type of improvement that will carry the Road Departmtnt's recommendation unless Broadway property owners indicate preference for an alternate plan. The acceptable alternate plan would provide for considerable more parking between the setback lines. both plans are pictured above.

Minor changes have been planned in the lower sketch since it was drawn.

In the alternate plan (top drawing) which Mack said would be acceptable to the Road Department, the center Island would be eliminated and a 2-foot-wide painted stripe substitutid. Traffic lanes would be 11 feet wide. Most of the area saved by eliminating the island could be converted into parking, Mack said. Broadway would then look like this: A two-foot wide stripe painted down the center separating four 11-foot-wide traffic lanes. There would then be an 8-foot-wide parallel-parking area on each side of the traffic lanes controlled by an eighteen inch wide curb. A three-foot safety sidewalk will be required adjacent the curb. That leaves a agonal parking and 8 feet for a sidewalk. In both plans the county would install and pay for the improvement to and including the curbs.

Behind the curbs in both plans the property owner could improve his property at whatever time he wished, Mack pointed out. The island plan reduces the parking area behind the curbs by half.

The REVIEW is picturing both plans so that tenants, as well as property owners, might be informed in advance of what plans are in the making.

The Dimmer VIEW

By MAX GOODWIN

Municipal Court Judge Luther Hussey gave a talk at the Men's Club last week which in my opinion, did not improve his stature as a judge of the bench he has recently come to occupy at the expense of closing our local court, nor was it for the good of the Men's Club from which he had requested speechmaking privileges.

He talked about courts and flayed the character and honesty of the REVIEW and its editor for publishing "with malicious intent" articles concerning the loss of the local court. He labeled the articles as untruths.

These "untruths" it so happens, were some of the mouthings which came from Hussey a couple of years ago as he scurried around the community raising an alarm and soliciting aid when the supervisors suggested justice court consolidation. The community needed its court, he said at that time.

Thus, it becomes as matter of who utters them which makes them truths or lies.

This year there was not a word of complaint from him or his followers when consolidation again threatened. The court was the same, and the need for a local court was greater than before. The only difference, that I can see is that the judge moved up with the court, and so did his wages; from $5,100 to $16,500.

At the Men's Club meeting Hussey had with him his usual claque. They commanded the floor and asked obviously prepared questions. With a musical background it would have made a Gilbert & Sullivan opera.

Hussey will soon face an election at which time his municipal court seat will be at stake. If he is going to be a successful vote-getter it will be because he has by then learned to make his motives less apparent, and has avoided permitting his henchmen to appear so well trained.

I had another remarkable experience last week; one that reminded me again that most

School Board To Apply For S. A. Funds

The Lemon Grove School Board acts on approval of submitting applications for San Altos School funds next Monday night. The funds, coming from the State and the Federal government, will help build the new elementary school overwhelmingly endorsed by voters at the school election on October 15. Federal funds are granted areas like Lemon Grove under Public Law 815 which allows money to districts impacted by federally-connected workers.

Other items on the October 28 agenda include public hearings on easements at the San Altos site for street widening and utilities and further discussion and consideration of a proposal for a ball park. The proposal was made at an earlier meeting this month by Little League sponsors who suggested combining county park land with unused areas belonging to the Monterey Heights site.

The meeting, which begins at 7:30 p.m. in the Education Center on Lincoln Avenue ,is open to the public, and interested school patrons and other community citizens are invited to attend.

Organizations of the parish, including the Parents Guild, the Legion of Mary, Catholic Youth Organization, the Boy Scouts, Men's Club, Catholic Daughters of America, Junior Catholic Daughters of America and the Altar Society are working together to make this dinner an outstanding success. The same high excellence of food and efficiency of service that have characterized this event in the past will be maintained. The proceeds will go into the Building Fund for the proposed new and larger church.

Mr. Bernard Robin is general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Jack Lee, Mrs. Claude Sarvis, Mrs. Fred Kenny, and the parish societies mentioned above. Autumn decorations will be featured.

Fire Guts House On North Avenue

Fire gutted the converted garage occupied by Mrs. and Mrs. William Wallace, 7951 North Avenue Tuesday night while the couple was in Utah on a deer hunt.

Fire Captain Harry Alexander said the fire apparently started from defective wiring. No one was injured.

The couple's son and daughter-in-law and their three children reside in the house adjacent.

Results of Junior College Survey To Be Given Friday

The State conducted survey of possible needs for a junior college in this area has been completed and the Grossmont High School District will hold a dinner meeting Saturday at the El Cajon Valley High School, at which time the results of the study will be revealed.

Speaker Calls Editor 'Malicious'

The Men's Club Friday heard Municipal Judge Luther Hussey charge that the editor of the REVIEW had published material "with malicious intent" about the closing of the Homeland Judicial Court and the subsquent upgrading by which he became a municipal court judge at $16,500 a year from a $5,100 justice judge.

The REVIEW had pointed out that Hussey had made numerous trips to Sacramento to encourage legislation by which the court consolidation could be effected and his promotion assured.

Hussey, who had requested that he be given the program, said that his knowledge of the "editor's attitude and character" had contributed to his conviction that the material was malicious. He also talked about the duties and functions of the various courts.

Friday, Mayor Cecil Gunthorp of Imperial Beach will be the speaker. On two other occasions the mayor had to cancel commitments to speak because of illness and pressure of work.

The Men's Club meets every Friday at noon at Michael's and all men are invited to attend.

CTA Exec To Be Teachers' Speaker

New teachers to Lemon Grove will learn about the services of the California Teachers Association this Thursday night, October 24, when all members hear John Orcutt, Director of the CTA Branch Office in San Diego. Convening at 7:30 at the junior high auditorium, this second business meeting of the Lemon Grove District Teachers Association will also feature special reports of county, CTA, and NEA activities in the fields of pupil and teacher welfare.

Rick Stammerjohn, president, announced this week that a general election is scheduled to fill two vacancies on the long-term salary and legislative committees. The local chapter, which has a possible 124 members this year, is aiming to continue a 100% membership in all professional associations.

Professional Men First In United Fund Drive Here

Lemon Grove's campaign organization in the United Fund drive began shaping up this week with the naming of committeemen in two divisions.

Earl Smart, attorney, was the first one signed up in the Commerce and Industry effort among firms with five or more employes. In the professional group, Dr. John Schietzelt will campaign for the M.D.'s and Dr. Donald L. Johnson for the dentists.

The United Fund was formed by givers and workers in order to have one big drive for the Red Cross, Community Chest and other health and welfare services essential to the health and well-being of community life.

SAN ALTOS TO GET 211 MORE HOUSES

F.H.A. construction loan application for construction of 211 more homes in San Altos was made this week by Hertziger-Harris Construction Company, according to Sam Harris, partner in the construction firm.

The firm recently completed and sold 188 houses in San Altos unit number 1. The ultimate total will be 550, Harris said.

The new homes, in $15,900 to $16,400 price brackets, may be chosen from six floor plans and 23 elevations. 80 percent of the lots will have a clear, full view, Harris said.

The houses will be three bedrooms and family room, or four bedrooms and all have two baths.

Site of the new development is over the brow of San Altos hill, due south from the present unit, on the downhill slope Joward Imperial Avenue.

Construction work should get under way in about 30 days, Harris, said, and the first houses will be ready for occupancy in about 4 to 5 months.

The same staff of salespeople who sold the houses in unit 1 are still with the firm and will handle sales at unit 2, Harris said.

PET FAIR TO BE HELD THIS WEEK

The San Diego Pet Fair will be held this year, October 26, and 27 in the Conference Building, Balboa Park.

A large display of tropical fish, a canary show, and a parakeet show, combined with the mutt show tend to make this the largest show of its kind in Southern California. Approximately 1000 bird entries are expected.

This show is being presented by The Budgie Fanciers of San Diego County, San Diego Red Star Color Canary Club, San Diego Chapter, National Retail Pet Supply Association and the San Diego Humane Society. Admission is free.

Hoover's Rally Nips Mt. Miguel 28-14

by Jerry Wingo

Hoover High's Art Samuels scored two touchdowns and passed for another, to pace the Cardinal's to a 28-14 victory over Mt. Miguel, last Friday night.

The Redbirds' first score came early in the 3rd quarter when Bob Shaw raced over from the 16 yard line.

Then, early in the 4th quarter, Samuels began to tick, when he dashed over from the 4 yard line. With seconds remaining, he again had the privilege of crossing the Bullfighters' goal.

Hoover's 4th TD came on a 58 yard pass play from Samuels to John Erickson. Allan "The Toe" Clinger kicked all of the Cardinal extra points.

Jerry Lipscomb had the honor to be the first Matador across the Cardinal goal. Early in the 4th quarter, Darrel Rathje showed his true colors by galloping in from the 29 yard line. All of Mt. Miguel's extra points were tanked over by Ron Helsel.

Summary:

Hoover	0	0	7	21	—28
Mt. Miguel	0	7	0	7	—14

Phoney Diplomas Will Be Stamped Out Says Assemblyman

"According to complaints received by our subcommittee, thousands of illicit diplomas are being bought and sold like bottles of gin in prohibition days", said Assemblyman Sheridan Hegland of La Mesa this week.

Hegland, Chairman of the state Assembly Subcommittee on Issuance of Degrees, announced that more than fifty persons have received subpoenas to appear at a legislative hearing on "Diploma Mills" at the State Building in Los Angeles beginning October 21st.

"If these charges are true, there may be a bootleg market international in scope, with every type of diploma for sale", Hegland asserted, adding, "Hundreds of phony degrees are said to carry the Official Seal of the State of California".

Other members of the Subcommittee are Assemblymen Donald D. Doyle of Lafayette and Gordon Winton of Merced.

Expected to testify are Attorney General Pat Brown, State Superintendent of Instruction Roy E. Simpson, and an array of top educational and religious leaders.

"Among those which are alleged to have been sold", Hegland said, "are M. D., Ph. D., D. D., A. M, and L1. D. degrees".

"In many professional offices in Southern California we are informed phony degrees are being displayed, absolutely worthless", Hegland said.

It was brought out that Ditto had been driving without a license. He admitted causing a collision in El Cajon on September 27, with a car driven by Harvey L. Hyatt of 9511 Montemar Dr., also Spring Valley. Hyatt and his mother, Mrs. Ollie H. Hyatt of North Park, were hurt. It was Mrs. Hyatt who later died.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICE DISCUSSES PROBATION AND TRANSFORMATION

The continuing regeneration and transformation of the individual man and woman through spiritualization of thought and deed up to the spiritual goal, — conscious heavenly being, — is discussed in the Lesson-Sermon "Probation After Death" in each Church of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday.

The thought that this transformation goes on both before and after death is a feature strongly stressed. An example of this is where Christ Jesus says to the Sadducees, "Now that the dead are raised, even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto him" (Luke 20:37, 38).

'No Gadgets On Windshield'—CHP

SACRAMENTO (Special) Drivers who have novelties and other gadgets hanging between them and the car windshields are in violation of the law says the California Highway Patrol.

"A new law passed by the 1957 Legislature prohibits any person from driving a motor vehicle upon a highway with any object so placed in or upon the vehicle as to obstruct the driver's clear view through the windshield," declared Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell. "This includes novelties such as dice, baby shoes, gadgets on strings or springs, and all such items.

"The Patrol is charged with enforcement of all the vehicle laws and proper enforcement action will be taken against drivers who continue to drive with these items hanging in the car so as to obstruct the driver's view," Caldwell stated. "Obstruction of the driver's view is a recorded contributing factor in many traffic accidents each year.

"Motorists are urged to comply with this law and help in the fight against traffic accidents in California."

SV Driver Gets 1-5 Years On 502 Charge

Dorsa Leonard Ditto of 9111 Olive Drive, Spring Valley, was sentenced to from one to five years in prison, last Thursday, after he pleaded guilty to a charge of drunk driving, involving an injury to a woman who later died. Superior Court Judge Glen pronounced sentence.

Judge Glen refused to consider probation due to the fact that Ditto had had three previous misdemeanor drunken driving convictions. Judge Glen told him, "This is the end of the road for you."

It was brought out that Ditto had been driving without a license. He admitted causing a collision in El Cajon on September 27, with a car driven by Harvey L. Hyatt of 9511 Montemar Dr., also Spring Valley. Hyatt and his mother, Mrs. Ollie H. Hyatt of North Park, were hurt. It was Mrs. Hyatt who later died.

The convicted man is married, the father of three children and stepfather to a daughter by his wife's first marriage.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICE DISCUSSES PROBATION AND TRANSFORMATION

The continuing regeneration and transformation of the individual man and woman through spiritualization of thought and deed up to the spiritual goal, — conscious heavenly being, — is discussed in the Lesson-Sermon "Probation After Death" in each Church of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday.

The thought that this transformation goes on both before and after death is a feature strongly stressed. An example of this is where Christ Jesus says to the Sadducees, "Now that the dead are raised, even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto him" (Luke 20:37, 38).

'No Gadgets On Windshield'—CHP

SACRAMENTO (Special)) Drivers who have novelties and other gadgets hanging between them and the car windshields are in violation of the law says the California Highway Patrol.

"A new law passed by the 1957 Legislature prohibits any person from driving a motor vehicle upon a highway with any object so placed in or upon the vehicle as to obstruct the driver's clear view through the windshield," declared Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell. "This includes novelties such as dice, baby shoes, gadgets on strings or springs, and all such items.

"The Patrol is charged with enforcement of all the vehicle laws and proper enforcement action will be taken against drivers who continue to drive with these items hanging in the car so as to obstruct the driver's view," Caldwell stated. "Obstruction of the driver's view is a recorded contributing factor in many traffic accidents each year.

"Motorists are urged to comply with this law and help in the fight against traffic accidents in California."

Baptists Eye $50,000 Budget

A budget of $50,551.00 has been recommended by the budget planning committee of the First Baptist Church of Lemon Gove for the fiscal year of 1957-58.

The recommendations were presented to the church membership October 23 for consideration until October 27, at which time the budget adopted with revisions thought necessary by the membership.

After adoption the budget will be the goal of the current Stewardship Campaign.

The '57-'58 budget exceeds the '56-'57 by 42 per cent in order to help met the growth and needs of the community and the world-wide program which Southern Baptist Churches strive to promote.

'Back-To-School' Night Set For Jr. Hi P.-T.A.

Spring Valley Junior High School will hold its third annual "back-to-school" night for parents of the youngsters attending the school at 7:30 p.m. October 24. The program, under the sponsorship of the local PTA, will feature the regular school day broken into ten minute periods.

Some 400 parents are expected to gather in the cafetorium for a short business meeting which will be followed by the parents breaking into groups to follow their child's daily program. Teachers of the school will explain the content of their particular subjects and some of the methods they use to teach their students. Examples of students work will also be on display.

During the regular lunch hour parents will have the choice of visiting the school library or returning to the cafetorium for an explanation of the daily lunch lead through the rounds by guides consisting of the current members of the school Service Club.

Following the "school day" visitors will return again to the cafetorium for refreshments of coffee and home-made pie. The sale of these refreshments are one of the three money raising activities of the local PTA chapter for the school year.

Mr. and Mrs. John I Kurtz, 3429 Par Dr., recently had as house guests for several days Lt. Cdr. (ret.) and Mrs. D. A. Johns of Norfolk, Va., and their daughter Linda, 11. The Johns are now visiting in the Los Angeles area and considering a permanent move to some location in California. San Diego County has everything, folks—need you look further?

Members of the Conard Carman family at 3445 Fairway, were thrilled to have Bill home on a 30 day furlough from Army duty in Bremerhaven, German, after which he returned for 17 more months. During son Bill's visit, Mrs. Carman's sister came from Omaha for a two-week stay. A reunion with relatives from the Los Angeles area was held at Knott's Berry Farm.

Congratulations to Jeff Girade, 16, of 3267 Par Dr., on his installation as one of the officers of the La Mesa Chapter of De Molay. Jeff's summer vacation is worthy of mention, too. He traveled to Washington State with his aunt and uncle who lived in Walla Walla, and spent six weeks visiting there and other places including Seattle, Bremerton, Bellingham, and Priest Lake, Idaho, where he and his cousins enjoyed water skiing.

Bob and Harriett Masch, 3262 Par, and sons Carl, 9, and Bobby, 8, were one of several Brookside families who returned from vacation trips just in time for the start of school. The Masches were away for a month—most of that time being spent visiting their parents and other relatives in Wisconsin. On their homeward route they drove through Yellowstone, stopped at Mt. Rushmore, South Dakota, and near there saw and fed mountain goats and donkeys — all very friendly and unusually large, according to Harriett. She says that once while Bob was outside the car taking pictures, two hungry donkeys thrust their shaggy heads right inside the car through the open windows—one on each side of her! They were after crackers which she held and they succeeded in eating every morsel—box, waxed paper and all.

"Newt" and Jean Newton, with Gary, 8, and Peggy, 5, all of 3437 Fairway, had a real change from hot August weather when they camped for two weeks near Rock Creek Lake in the High Sierras. Snow fell one night just a short distance above their camp and Jean was ready to come home bus was voted down. They took a side trip one day to Devil's Post Pile National Monument and agree with everyone who's ever been there that something should be done about that road!

Ken and Dorothy Matters of Trophy Dr. and sons Ronnie, Donnie, and Tommy, visited Dorothy's folks in Council Bluffs, Iowa, during their recent three-week trip and stopped in Denver, too, to see her sister. Condolences to little Stephen Wing, 4, of Niblick Dr. who was pretty uncomfortable following a tonsillectomy several weeks ago. Stephen has had company in his misery, though, as Jeanie Skalman, 6, right across the street, had her tonsils out, too, just a couple of days earlier.

During the last two weeks of summer Peg and Art Thrivierge, Trophy Dr., took their children, Arthur, 10, Suzanne, 8, and Ted, 6, camping at Jalama—a beautiful coastal spot about 70 miles north of Santa Barbara off U. S. Highway 1. Surf fishing was wonderful and every member of the family had the fun of pulling in several large perch. Peg was especially thrilled by the sight of a spectacular electric storm out over the ocean—in fact she was enthusiastic about every phase of the vacation except the last day when car trouble forced them to send a distress call to her parents to come and tow them home some 200 miles!

REVOLUTIONARY NEW "SHOCK-ABSORBER"
GIVES EXTRA PROTECTION TO FRAGILE FREIGHT

Careful handling of freight has always been a prime concern of Southern Pacific. Four years ago we asked Stanford Research Institute to help us develop an even better way to cushion boxcar shipments of fragile freight. The result is something we're proud to report.

It is the Hydra-Cushion Underframe freight car, which employs a unique sliding underframe with a hydraulic pressure device to give extra cushioning to fragile shipments while cars are being coupled or are in transit.

350 Cars. We built 350 of these cars—and added "DF" (damage-free) interior loading equipment and roller bearings for good measure—to assure extra protection to shipments of television receivers, bottled goods, glassware, ceramic tile and numerous other fragile products.

The Hydra-Cushion Underframe freight car is an example, we think, of how Southern Pacific uses modern research in our continuing effort to give the finest freight service.

Penalty Now If Driver License 30 Days Late

An awful lot of good, experienced California drivers who otherwise would be entitled to quick renewal of their driver licenses for a full five years are having to run the full gamut of written and road tests to obtain three year licenses.

Why?

"Because," explained State Motor Vehicle Field Office Chief E. Keith Ball, "they have failed to observe the requirements of a new driver license law that went into effect September 11."

The law, called variously the "birthday anniversary" and the "reward for good driving" act, stipulates that drivers who permit their licenses to lapse for more than 30 days must take a complete examination, including driving test, when applying for renewal.

And it further provides that unless application for renewal is made within 30 days after expiration of old licenses, the term of the new license shall be limited to three years. This, despite the fact that the driver might have had a perfect driving record, a circumstance which would have entitled to a five year license, had he renewed within 30 days after his old license expired.

Ball disclosed that DMV field offices throughout the State report an unusually heavy volume of license renewals that require the giving of road tests to drivers who, had they applied before the 30 day expiration deadline, would have been entitled to new licenses merely upon passing the law and vision examinations.

"It is to the definite advantage of every driver to examine his license and apply for renewal within 30 days of the date it expires," the DMV official reminded.

"Drivers with good records who observe this timing requirement will receive renewed licenses good until the fifth birthdate following the application date."

Licenses may be renewed at the area DMV office at 7787 University Ave., Monday through Friday 8 to 5 p.m. Driving tests are given by appointment only.

GOLDEN P.-T.A. TOPS 100 PER-CENT IN MEMBER DRIVE

Mrs. A. J. Long, membership chairman, reports that this year's membership drive has resulted in the largest membership ever attained at the Golden Avenue School. The total number of persons joining during this membership drive was 611, so the school is well over the 100% mark. Mr. Wiliam Firtch, 4th Grade teacher, earned first place with 22.4%; Mrs. Lockey Palermo and Mr. Michael Calderone, 4th-5th Grade combination and 6th Grade respectively, tied for second place with 22.0% each. The room in first place receives $4.00; the rooms tied for second place will receive $2.00 each. An additional honor goes to the pupils in Mrs. Palermo's room for bringing in the most Men's Memberships. Each student will receive a ticket to ride on the merry-go-round in Balboa Park, in keeping with the theme of "Hop On The Merry-Go-Round". This Parent-Teacher Association membership costs the individual 50c, and the Golden Avenue unit receives 20c of each one while the balance goes to the Ninth District and National P.-T.A. and is used to carry on the activities of each organization at its particular level.

WANTS CASH HE FOUND

Wilson, N. C.—C. Louis Deans, 26-year-old plumber, is seeking to recover $18,000 he says he found in a hot-water heater in the home of M. C. Godwin near Buckhorn October 5, 1955. Deans found 180 $100 bills in a cloth bag as he repaired a water heater. He showed the bag to Godwin, who professed no knowledge of it or its contents. Godwin contended in court that the money was hidden by his wife, who died June 18, 1954.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

I am writing this in answer to the letter appearing in last week's Bulletin, from an A. R. Trimble, about the square dancing in the schools.

There are some people who would complain about living near a church too. A great percentage of the people you will find square dancing, you will find in church on Sunday a. m.

My understanding about the schools is that they are for the use of the public who build and maintain them.

If Mr. Trimble had bothered to call the district office of the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District, he would have discovered that the square dance clubs are charged for the use of the schools. The charge on a school night is $8.00 for the hall and if the kitchen is used, the charge is $11.00. On a non-school night the charge is $14.50 for the auditorium and $17.50 if the kitchen is used.

The price of admission to one of these dances is 50 cents per person. If you go to a regular ballroom dance the charge is generally $1.50 per person or more. On week nights the dances are over by 10 p.m. or 10:30 p.m. and on Saturday by 11 p.m.

As far as calling it a "dance-hall" if Mr. Trimble will some night walk across the street and watch the dances, he will find people of all ages from teenagers to 60 or 70 years old, thoroughly enjoying themselves in a clean wholesome atmosphere, without the benefit of any liquor.

Square dancers, as a rule do not drink, and if one among them does imbibe before a dance, he or she is soon given to understand that you need all of your senses sharp to be able to follow the calls correctly. Square dancing and drinking do not mix.

My husband and I have been square dancing for two years, and I have yet to go to a dance that I would be ashamed to take my two young daughters to.

I would much rather my girls would grow up to square dance instead of sitting in a dark bar somewhere.

Mr. Trimble, if you can't beat them, try joining them. You'll find out then how to really enjoy life.

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. K. E. Yzelman,
9236 Campo Road,
Spring Valley, California

Dear Editor:

At the regular meeting of the Board of Officers of our association held October 10, 1957, I was authorized to express to you our appreciation for the publicity you gave us in the article headed: "Taxpayers Group Registers Growl On (Del Dios) Road", in your September 25, 1957 issue. We feel that your fine publicity was largely responsible for the Board of Supervisors tabling this item at their October 2nd meeting. Mr. Goodwin's 'The Dimmer View' of October 9, 1957, expressed it very well when he said, "The fact that local newspapers enter the fray has a salutary effect on the interpretors of the law."

The Little League Board of Directors announced that the men who will serve as Major League managers for 1958 in the local Little League program have been selected.

Al Burke will manage the Braves; Kreger, Yankees; Bill Allen, Dodgers; R. G. Richardson, Indians; Clarence Luitjens, Tigers; and George Sempel, Cubs. All managed the same teams in the 1957 season.

Care and Treatment Of Growing Avocados Told

During the months of September and October, some off-bloom Fuerto avocados are being harvested. This is unusual because the Fuerto season does not normally begin until November. The reason for this early crop was a favorable climatic condition last winter and early spring. According to the University of California, this condition favored the setting of early and off-bloom fruit, resulting in a longer harvest season. Trees growing in the various avocado districts have a wide variance of fruit size. This means selective picking of fruit is important.

There are numerous ways to determine when a fruit is ready to pick. The first and only certain method of determining the maturity of avocados is a laboratory test, but this method is expensive so others must be used. Use of other maturity tests, however, presupposes a knowledge of the variety grown and experience in observing external and internal fruit characteristics.

Avocados remain hard as long as they are left on the tree, and soften only after picking. Fruit will wrinkle and often will not soften uniformly or properly if picked before they are mature. Mature fruit softens to a smooth buttery consistency without wrinkling.

Some growers determine maturity by cutting a few fruits and examining the seeds. Around the seed is a skin, the seed coat; the seed coat of immature fruit is fleshy and generally light to yellowish-white in color. If the seed coat is dark brown and tissue-paper thin, then it is a good indication the fruit is mature.

Avacods remain hard as long as they are left on the tree, and soften only after picking. Fruit will wrinkle and often will not soften uniformly or properly if picked before they are mature. Mature fruit softens to a smooth buttery consistency without wrinkling.

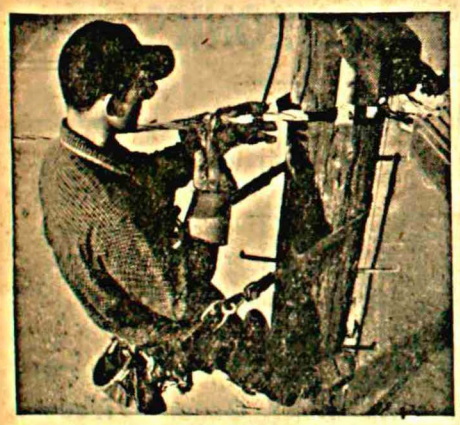
WHAT'S DOING
W. H. Parker, your Telephone Manager in La Mesa



The way things are growing around here, we're plenty busy putting in more phones. So, we keep on the lookout for time-savers. Like the little "watchcase" this telephone man's working with. This case connects the wire from a house to certain types of telephone cables outdoors. Makes the job a whole lot simpler. The case has a clamp on the back. So you can put it where you want it in a jiffy. Inside, it has a couple of tiny posts. You tie your wires around them. Then, snap on the top—and the job's done. Takes about 5 minutes. Time-savers like this help us bring more service to more people. In less time, too.

When you hear air hissing out of an auto tire, first thing you do is find the leak and have it fixed. Same thing goes for some telephone cables. They've got compressed air in them. The pressure keeps out moisture. And believe me, we keep close tabs on this pressure, too. When air starts to escape, instruments let us know right away. They tell us just about where the leak is, too. That way we can patch it up before it affects your phone calls.

DIRECTORY TIME!

The new Lemon Grove and adjoining area telephone directory goes to press soon. This week of November 4th it the last week changes in the alphabetical section can be made. Many of the active women in the community are making it easy for their friends to locate them by adding their names in the directory. Teen agers and other family members can be listed too. Give us a call at HOpkins 6-3201 and we'll be glad to put your name in print.

WASHINGTON SUMMARY
by ED KOTERBA

A startling development in Asian flu has been noted by Public Health Service officials. But they're keeping the news under their hats.

It is this: From evidence now on hand, it appears the so-called "epidemic" is sweeping across the country much faster than at first anticipated. It flares up, then disappears quickly.

As a result, the menace may "sweep itself out" before the bulk of the special vaccine is available to the general public.

COMPLAINTS POUR IN

Letters keep rolling into the office of the Surgeon General, accusing the government of favoring big industries over "ordinary individuals" in allotting flu vaccine.

Actually, distribution is set up by six big drug firms that manufacture it. The Public Health Service simply makes suggestions on how the vaccine should be distributed.

A SCAPE GOAT?

The Public Health Service has its fingers crossed concerning the progress of Asian flu.

It was a multi-million-dollar gamble when Surgeon General Leroy Burney told the drug firms to go all out in mass-producing the vaccine. In return, Burney was committed to promote the vaccine.

Should the epidemic fail to materialize, as advertised, the service—and especially Burney—will be criticized for "over-playing" the threatened menace.

(The Public Health Service is spending $800,000 in its publicity campaign on the flu).

If the flu scare fizzles, Burney will be the scape goat.

GRIPES

A lot of taxpayers are burned up about the favoritism shown in the government's distribution of the hard-to-get Asian flu vaccine.

The story is that federal agencies have taken priorities on the vaccine — and have inoculated government employes without cost!

It all started when the hush-hush Central Intelligence Agency obtained the vaccine for its employes. Other government departments heard about it and demanded "equal rights." So the Public Health Service expedited shots for all federal workers in Washington — and managed to keep the news from the Washington papers!

But the word leaked out via the grapevine and has made the ordinary souls — the taxpayers — boil. (Congress appropriated $800,000 for publicity on Asian flu.)

ANTI-FLUORIDATION

Rep. Usher Burdick of North Dakota, the one-man campaigner against poisons in food, is aiming his guns at fluoridation.

He reports: "Mounting evidence of increasing numbers of opponents to fluoridation of our public water supplies."

LOOSE SMOKES

The cigaret-cancer publicity has frightened millions of smokers into using one certain filter brand which was praised in a recent Readers Digest article.

The run on the "low-in-nicotine" brand is so heavy that most Washington stores are continually running out of supply.

The factory is hard-pressed to keep up with the demand. As a result, cigarets are so loosely packed that by tapping one, the tobacco sinks a full-half-inch.

MORE VET MONEY

Congressmen are telling constituents back home that laws to give greater benefits to veterans —laws not acted on this year— will be shoved through Congress in 1958.

Topping the list: More pension money for World War 1 vets and more benefits to men with service-connected disabilities.

AGRICULTURE NOTES

The Agriculture Department thinks it has the answer for growing tulips in the Deep South—First cool the bulbs for 6 to 8 weeks at 40 degrees. . . This produces longer stems and more flowers, thus more profitable.

The Agricultural people are sending a specialist to Japan to promote wider use of our soybeans . . . The Japanese now use 20 million bushels of U. S. soybeans a year for their two favorite dishes, "tofu" and "miso."

BUSINESS FAILURES

A leading issue against the Republicans in the '58 campaign has already been launched by Rep. Frank Thompson of New Jersey. . . . It's the Administration's alleged failure to keep its promises to help small business.

Thompson comes up with these figures: Small business failures so far in 1957 are close to the 10,000 mark, highest level since 1939 . . . Also: Small business received only 16.7 per cent of the $12 billions in defense contracts so far this year.

FOOD PRICE-FIXING

A big item when Congress convenes in January: An investigation into large meat packers and food chains . . . The charge: Abetting inflation by "fixing" prices on farm items.

Dimmer View

people are sincere and good . . . if given the proper atmosphere. It was proven by two men who stood before the school board making a pitch for help in getting a park in Monterey Heights . . . a park in which a Little League baseball grounds could be built. These men, Carmine Ursillo, of 8051 Roy Street, and S. I. Vilcone, of 2360 Washington St., stood shoulder-to-shoulder as though they had been working at this project for months.

Actually, the month before, they stood facing one another in a hostile crowd, each representing opposing factions . . . and the issue was Little League. The major difference was that an important ingredient was missing before . . . the spirit of understanding.

Home owners near the League's diamond on Washington Street had asked for respite from noise and damage. The residents were told they'd jolly well take it and like it . . . and tempers flared.

When Ursillo was elected president of the Little League, this was the situation he faced.

At the meeting where he and Vilcone faced each other, words were sharp and resentment strong. The word "co-operation" seemed out of place in this atmosphere but was said a couple of times. The word took hold. The two leaders did get together. The two men started to work for the common cause . . . instead of against each other. I, and some of the trustees who were in on the previous meetings was mighty proud of the outcome. I have an idea these two men will be jointly dedicating a new park and playground before many weeks have passed.

Here, I think, is an example of the elements which go to make up community spirit . . . and to the men who dug for the proper ingredients I tip my hat.

Voting at school can be good for the morale!

So is a visit to the schools you vote for.

I knocked both of these gladsome chores over with a single visit recently when I voted "yes" for all four issues on the ballot.

Since I have a seven year old firecracker in Mrs. Higgins second grade class I headed for there after I finished chatting with the gals at the polls at San Miguel school.

Mrs. Higgins was attending a school workshop on this day and who was seated amid a circle of admiring youngsters, his face aglow with the pleasure of his task? Mr. Big himself . . . Ben Schei, San Miguel principal.

It was obvious Mrs. Higgins had given the youngsters good training because their co-operation led Schei to say to me, "Aren't these wonderful youngsters?"

"You know, I used to teach," he said, "and now I miss it." He said he was shocked to realize just how much he missed it. This void, he said, was brought into focus whenever he got back into the classroom for a day of instruction.

I guess teaching is like writing, or preaching, or doctoring, or painting. If you are among one of the creative professions you know the determination to produce in kind is almost irresistible.

We talked awhile about how youngsters responded to good teaching. He said a good word about the teachers at San Miguel and then led his charges out in single file to the lunch room. They were quiet and mannerly. I was proud. I could tell that Mr. Schei was, too.

I went on my way feeling the way a person does when they have been in close contact with something good and clean and wholesome.

I finally caught the California Department of Motor Vehicle with it's Code down which ought to teach everyone who reads this that it pays to have an inquisitive mind.

The DMV gives a written examination for those who are applying for their drivers license for the first time, or for renewal of expired drivers license.

They hand out a 48 page booklet in which they summarize the Vehicle Code so that you may know the proper answer to the 40 questions you are required to answer.

One question, number 32 on test number 10 asks about the right-of-way at a "stop" sign. The testers say you must wait for all traffic when you stop for a "stop" sign. The summary says you do not. (Para 6 page 17). And they have a picture cartoon in the booklet to prove it. (Page 16).

I asked the DMV about the discrepancy. They tried to tell me the answer was correct. After some inducement the DMV took the trouble to look it up and as we read it together a glazed look came into the department's eye.

"Well," they said, "the more you read it the more it seems to contradict itself."

They thumbed through the Master Code book and announced pleasantly that the summary "had presented the law obscurely."

I earnestly solicit Paul Mason, director of the Department of Motor Vehicles to rush through a revision on his "revised" Summary to the end of reducing some of the confusion this error has caused.

In an obvious attempt to do something about the confusion involved in trying to understand the meaning of some of the county legal advertisements, an explanatory section is included in a current one.

It explains: "The present tense includes the past and future tenses: and the future, the present. The masculine gender includes feminine and neuter, and the singular number includes the plural, and the plural includes the singular."

I hope that answers the questions I am certain you had in mind before you read this explanation.
